Mount Everest is the highest mountain in the world. Two men from New Zealand and Nepal were the first ever to climb Mount Everest in 1953. Men from different countries climbed it after that.

Junko Tabei, a Japanese from Hokkaido, was the first woman to make this difficult climb. A Tokyo company organized the Mount Everest climb in 1975. They chose fifteen women from mountaineering clubs to go to Nepal. The group climbed for several days. However, an avalanche injured ten of them so only the other five continued. Only Ms. Tabei was able to climb the last 70 metres to be the first woman on top.

Ms. Tabei was 35 years old at the time. She is not an ordinary Japanese housewife. Her husband likes to climb mountains, too, but he can't have enough vacation from his work to go with his wife. He stays home to take care of the house and children.

Ms. Tabei earns money for her trips by teaching English and piano to children. She wants to climb the highest mountain in every country in the world.
