Every year students in many countries learn English. Some of these students are young children. Others are teenagers. Many are adults. Some learn at school, others study by themselves. A few learn English just by hearing the language in films, on television, or in the office. But not many are lucky enough to do that. Most people must work hard to learn another language.

Learning another language! Learning English! Why do all these people want to learn English? Is it difficult to answer that question? Many boys and girls learn English at school because it is one of their subjects. They study their own language and Mathematics and English. In England, or

America, or Australia, many boys and girls study their own language, which is English, and Mathematics and another language, perhaps French, or German, or Spanish.

Many adults learn English because it is useful for their work. Teenagers often learn English for their higher studies, because some of their books at the college or university are in English. Other people learn English because they want to read newspapers or magazines in English.

Question 31: What is the main idea of this passage?

- A. English is a difficult language to learn.
- B. English is learnt by people of different ages.
- C. English is the first language in England, America and Australia.
- D. English is useful for adults' work.

Question 32: According to the passage, all of the following are true about how people learn English EXCEPT _____.

- A. by watching films in English
- B. by watching English television programmes
- C. by hearing English in the office
- D. by teaching each other

Question 33: What does their own language in the passage mean?

- A. English
- B. French
- C. German
- D. Spanish

Question 34: Why do people learn English?

- A. They need it for their work.
- B. They need it for their further education.
- C. English is their school subject.
- D. A, B and C.

Question 35: It can be inferred from the passage that _____.

- A. young children learn English faster and better than adults
- B. students in English speaking countries study a foreign language a part from English
- C. books at colleges and universities are in English as it is useful
